Fiscal Year Annual Report | 2014–15 Impact

THANK YOU!
Thank you.

What better gift can we provide to Habitat supporters than proof that your contribution makes a difference?

In place of a traditional annual report, this summary pays tribute to you through the faces of new homeowners and the numbers that show our local impact.

You can see the names of all our financial and gift-in-kind donors at: www.monroecountyhabitat.org
Meet new homeowner GREG BAKER & daughter Deshauna.

DEDICATED.

Built his savings and home while juggling work, family, and the required Habitat volunteer hours.
Your gift just keeps on giving. Really!
In the past fiscal year, you helped house 12 new Habitat families, including 18 adults and 24 children. They join the more than 150 other families whose mortgages will sponsor the next set of Habitat homes.

Special thanks to this year’s house sponsors:
Bloomington High School North Habitat for Humanity Chapter
Evangelical Community Church
Habitat ReStore
Whirlpool Corporation
Meet new homeowner IJAH MCCULLEY & son Kilean.

RESILIENT.

Moved five times before a neighbor planted the seed of hope with a Habitat flyer.
You’ve made the dream possible for more Habitat homes in our new Trail View neighborhood, right off the B-line Trail.

These 35 homeowner families will continue to work hard to uphold our stellar record of only 3 percent foreclosures. Our homeowners credit our money management training series with the success.
First in her family to live the American dream and own her home.
This year the community supported our Habitat ReStore by donating or buying more than $160,000 in gently used items.

ReStore’s record profits funded the up-front housing costs for the Wyatt-Martindale family. The Wyatt-Martindales, like other Habitat homeowners, will pay back their interest-free mortgage over 20–30 years.
Meet new homeowner KYLE WYATT & daughter Skylar.

MOTIVATED.

This stay-at-home dad rallied community volunteers to build the family's home in record time.
Cash reserves from previous years were used to cover land development costs for our new Trail View neighborhood.

You gave generously so others in our community could live decently.
Meet new homeowner TRACEY Hodges & son Dante.

CARING.

This caregiver at work and home found stability for her autistic son.
Habitat builds houses—but we also build a better community right here in Monroe County. Thank you for another year of progress toward eliminating substandard housing. Together, we can continue to build a better future for all.

With gratitude,

Kerry Thomson
