ABOUT HABITAT FOR HUMANITY OF MONROE COUNTY

Habitat for Humanity of Monroe County is a nonprofit housing organization dedicated to building simple, decent, affordable homes in partnership with those in need in Monroe County. More than 20 percent of Monroe County residents live in poverty, the highest percentage in Indiana. Since 1988, our affiliate has been able to house nearly 700 people, including almost 400 children. For more information, visit www.monroecountyhabitat.org.

OUR ORGANIZATIONAL MISSION AND VISION

Our mission is to eliminate poverty housing by building decent, affordable homes in partnership with qualifying families. Our vision at Habitat has always been the same—a world where everyone has a decent place to live.

Mutual respect, a willingness to work together as a team and ongoing communication between staff persons and key volunteers is essential to the success of Habitat.
